

Privacy Statement

This Privacy Statement applies to all personal data collected via the scantago.com websites. By using our websites, you accept the practices described in this Statement. We may update our Privacy Statement from time to time to take account of changing requirements such as changes in technology or legislation.

Collection of Personal Information

For certain sections of the site, where you require further information, personal information is collected in order to reply to specific queries you make. For general web browsing no personal information is revealed to us.

Collection for Technical Information

This website does not use cookies, apart from temporary 'session' cookies which enable a visitor's web browser to remember which pages on this website have already been visited. Visitors can use this website with no loss of functionality if cookies are disabled from the web browser. Technical details in connection with visits to our websites are logged for statistical purposes only. No information is collected that could be used by us to identify website visitors. The technical details logged are confined to the following items:

- the IP address of the visitor's web server
- the top-level domain name used (e.g. .com, .org, .net)
- click stream data which shows the traffic of visitors around this website (such as pages accessed and documents downloaded)
- the type of web browser used by the website administrator

Some of the above information is used to create summary statistics, which allow us to measure the number of visitors to our sites, identify what pages are accessed most frequently and generally, help us to increase the usability and accessibility of our sites. We do not release any information or statistics to third-parties.